FINDING SOMETHING TO BE THANKFUL FOR

A Minister was known for always thanking God in his public prayers. One Sunday morning was particularly terrible and gloomy. A church member thought to himself, “Certainly the preacher won’t thank God for such a terrible day. “ When the preacher got up and began to pray , he said, “We thank Thee, O God that every day is not always like this.”

Anyone can be thankful when life is good. It really takes some effort to be thankful when life is difficult. Being thankful is a practiced skill. It’s a mindset we have to constantly work on. When we do, we are likely to find many, many wonderful parts of our lives to give thanks for, especially the small ones we take for granted. First Thessalonians 5: 16-18 says, “Rejoice always, pray without ceasing: in everything give thanks: for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.

God wants us to be thankful people. Finding something to be thankful for may take some time, it may take some creativity, and it may even send us into deep thought. No matter what it takes, let’s practice the habit of being thankful.

EVERYONE AFFECTED BY THE CORONAVIRUS

Your elders have never led a church through a pandemic before. When they open the church, some people are going to say that they should have closed. When they close it, some people are going to say they should have opened. When they offer to shake your hand or to give you hug, some people are going to say they have great faith, and some will say they are foolish. Your elders are going to make some difficult decisions to protect the flock that they oversee. Considering everything from your spiritual growth to your physical health, to legal liabilities that you are not even thinking about. Remember this:

No one wants things to go well at the church as much as your elders. Your elders need your prayers and support right now. Although you should not touch them right now, give them a big air hug! Support them in their decisions.

SYMPATHY — Our deepest sympathy and much love is sent to Robin Burroughs and family in the passing of her mother, Carole Williams on Sunday March 29, 2020. A Memorial service will be held at a later date.

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. Psalms 51:10
