GO ALONG TO GET ALONG

What is truth? Each and every person must come to grips with that question. These days, some will say that truth is whatever seems right to you. They have no problem with the fact that you may believe something different than they believe. However, when your truth leaves no room for their truth, now we start to have a problem. The same people who, moments earlier, were sitting cross-legged, eyes closed, swaying, holding hands, and singing, "All we are saying is give peace a chance," are, all of a sudden, in your face yelling and screaming because you are an evil, intolerant bigot and deserve to die a horrible, excruciating death. Okay, I've never had this happen to me, but I have seen similar outbursts on the internet (isn't technology wonderful).

You can go around and try to tell people that Jesus was a good guy who said some good stuff and did some good things for people a long time ago. If that is as far as you go, then people probably won't get mad at you. It's when you start getting exclusive that people will have a problem. And that's the problem with many who profess to be followers of Christ. We "go along to get along." I will say just enough but not too much so people won't get mad at me. After all, Christians are supposed to be all about peace, right?

In Matthew 10:34-36, Jesus says, Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person's enemies will be those of his own household.

Jesus makes very exclusive statements. In next week's article, we will take a look at some of the exclusive claims in the New Testament.

OUR PRAYER REQUESTS

Louise Jones is in need of prayers for some health difficulties she is dealing with and thanks everyone for praying.

Deb Stidolph requests prayers for complete body healing.

Sharron Simpson's cataract surgery went well this week. She will have the other eye done on the 24th.

Ronnie Rankey (Linda Henderson's friend) passed out due to a heat stroke while working in the attic. He is able to walk, but doctors say it will take about a year to recover fully.

Eddie Marsh (the Marsh's son) had to be seen for a bad headache, nausea, dizziness, and swollen left eye. All tests came back good but he's still experiencing all the symptoms.

Ruth Winstead is in excruciating pain from a bulging disc on her spinal cord.

Judy Davis (Janice Savage's sister) fell out of her wheelchair and broke her hip. Doctors are saying they don't think she can handle the surgery. Pray for them to make the best decision for her.

Phil Brewer (Vicki Wheeler's brother) has aggressive multiple myeloma. He had to get a blood transfusion on Wednesday. He is really struggling right now.

Mark Justice will have another test done to see if he is still positive. He isn't feeling good and is resting as much as possible.

Janice Savage will not require surgery thankfully.

Wanda Boozer is staying home per doctor's orders. Her recovery is still slow going. She has physical therapy at home.

Caleb Marsh, (the Marsh's grandson) had a dye test done on Tuesday. He has a doctor in Dallas considering his surgery after more tests are done.

Continue praying for these: Beverly DeLano, Linda & Sheryl Henderson, Keara (Cynthia's granddaughter), Gala (Sharron's granddaughter), Tommy Burroughs (Tim's brother), Debbie Craig (Matt's stepmom), Regina Gustin (Matt's mom)

Please check the monthly Prayer List and the Peak of the Week for more ongoing prayer requests and their updates.
